OUTLINES.

America was not among the winners of gold medals at the Olympic contests in London yesterday——Seven men were killed by an explosion in a Pennsylvania coal mine Wednesday——The Prohibition National convention met in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday. Nothing more than temporary organization was effected. The question of candidates will be decided today. A sub-committee on platform was appointed whose report will probably be adopted. It will endorse woman suffrage among other things——The Shriners will meet in St. Louis next year——Spot cotton closed quiet, middling uplands 11.10, middling gulf 11.35. Money on call easy 1 1-4 to 1 1-2 per cent., ruling rate 1 1-4, closing bid 1 1-4, offered 1 1-2. Flour steady with a fair demand. Wheat easy, No. 2 red 97 1-2 to 99 elevator. Corn firm No. 2 82 1-2 nominal elevator. Oats steady, mixed 57 to 58. Rosin steady. Turpentine quiet 41c.

Bicycle races at Olympic contests strike us as being somewhat of an anachronysm.

Wonder if Mr. Bryan has yet decided which half of the White House he will turn over to Mr. Kern?

The Constitution claims that Atlanta is an ideal summer resort. We suppose it was speaking for the mosquitos.

If such vessels as the Torr Head can come to Wilmington now, what will we see here when we get our thirty-foot channel?

It is said the Georgia Colonel has become reconciled to the substitution of the rattlesnake watermelon for the mint julep. "Wonders never cease."

"The story of Oyster Bay" is the title of a new book says an exchange. We suppose it treats of how to whittle the big stick into a flail.

My! How quiet politics have become in this State. You can't get up any discussion on a street corner now, save on the one question: Will Bryan carry the Solid South?

The political cartoonist and the political squib writer have all the fun they want out of Judge Parker, but he is going to make his mark yet in the Democratic party.

Some are already speaking of our nominee for Vice President as Colonel Kern. We don't thing that is treating him fairly. He does not claim to be a Federal veteran, or to have taken part in the Spanish war.

The press came near making the mistake a few night ago that a son had been born to John D. Rockefeller. A correction made it a grandson, which greatly relieved the excitement consequent on the first report.

The Atlanta Constitution thinks that President Castro resembles Speaker Cannon in one respect. He stands pat, no matter what the odds against him. He is willing to go down before superior force "standing pat."

Colonel Watterson, since his friendly chat on the back porch at Fairview, has become convinced that Bryan will win from "Cape Cod to Kalamazoo," but he neglects to state that in going from one of these points to the other you do not have to cross the Potomac.

It would seem from the Press dispatches that all the North Carolina delegates to the Democratic National convention have not yet found their way home. Perhaps some of them are still lingering in the Middle West States in the hopes that some kind of political thunder might strike them.

Some folks think Colonel Watterson should have sent a telegram of condolence to Governor Johnson. Such would have been in order had the convention been held two or three months ago; but the Colonel has taken several somersaults, political, since then and it is now in order for him to congratulate Mr. Bryan.

Wouldn't it be splendid this hot weather if custom would allow the wearing of bathing suits within the city as well as on the sands at Wrightsville? Were it permissible we would be willing to compromise on a one, instead of a two-piece garment, though it might not be quite so negligee in some respects.

This is a week of excursions for Wilmington. Let them come. Each excursionist does some good in the way of leaving some money here and advertising the city, even if he does go home abusing the city and the Tidewater Power Company for the poor accommodations given strangers in the city who go to and come from the sound.

SCORES RANGE HIGH

Men at Gun Club Shooting Strong in The State Tournament.

CHAMPIONSHIP YESTERDAY

Stokley and Storr Tie For Lyon Trophy—Guy Ward Leads Professionals With 199-200—Stokley Leads Amateurs.

Phenomenally high scores for both amateurs and professionals was again the feature of yesterday's shooting in the second day's events of the annual State and Inter-State Gun Club tournament now in progress on the Wilmington traps.

Guy Ward, of the Ballistite Powder Company, was high professional with 199 out of 200, having had a straight run of 143, while Stokley, of the Wilmington Club who did such phenomenal shooting on the first day, won the high amateur average with 188 out of 200, enjoying a straight run of 120 during the morning and early afternoon hours. The most interesting meet of the day was the shoot for the State championship, which was completed at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening after the regular tournament events had been concluded. Stokley, of Wilmington, and E. H. Storr, of the Peters Cartridge Co., entered with the Charlotte club, tied for the handsome cup offered by Mr. Geo. L. Lyon, of Durham, and won last year by C. C. Bates of Charlotte. Each broke 97 out of the 100 pigeons while the trophy and championship was won last year by Mr. Bates with 93-100.

Members of the club, visitors and not a few spectators made another day of it at the grounds and the interest was keen all day. For the high professional average Mr. Ward had a close second in Mr. Walter Huff, of the Dupont Powder Works, who broke 198 out of 200, Mr. Storr coming third with 196-200. Mr. Huff had a straight run of 136 during the two days and now has an incompleted straight run of 136 to begin on today.

For the high amateur average Dr. J. I. Johnson, of Raleigh, came second with 186; Chas. Nuchkol, of Charlotte, third with 184 and Lee Holmes, of the Wilmington Club, fourth with 182. Stokley would have shot well up or ahead of the professionals again but for the fact that in the eighth twenty targets he lost five on account of the trap's working irregularly. Greensboro sent three representatives yesterday afternoon in time to enter the State championship race. These were Messrs. D. M. Sullivan, R. O. Whittington and J. T. B. Shaw. Mr. Whittington shot well in the run, making 90 out of 100, this being his first year out Three other members of the Greensboro Club, Messrs. Garland Daniels, J. C. Morris and C. E. Hudson, are expected today.

The fifth annual meeting of the North Carolina Trapshooters' Association, will be held some time today on the grounds and at this meeting officers will be elected and the place of next tournament will be decided upon. Greensboro will hold a shoot on the first of August and many of the men now at the traps expect to be there.

The shooting yesterday was in squads of five and was rather faster than the day before. The scores in the championship shoot in detail are as follows, each event being for 25 birds:

Squad 1.—				Broke
Littig	20	17	18	21—76

SWELTERED IN THE HEAT

Yesterday Most Disagreeably Warm of the Season in Wilmington—Maximum Temperature Was 93 Degrees.

The heat wave which furnished the newspaper statistics of pprostrations and sunstrokes in nearly all the large cities in the North earlier in the week has found its way down South and struck Wilmington yesterday, wilting the population like a leaf over a steam pipe.

It was the hottest day of the season, the mercury having sizzled up to the 93 degree notch early in the afternoon and the humidity having been oppressive. On the 21st of June the reading was as high but there was nothing like the humidity of yesterday, therefore the heat was not so noticeable. Before day yesterday morning the hot wave swung in this way and many persons complained of being unable to sleep. At 8 A. M. the thermometer stood at 79 and there was no breeze. Gradually it climbed to 90 degrees about noon and the average man declared that the limit had been reached. But not so; between that hour and 4 in the afternoon three more degrees were added and everybody who had the price and the inclination hied themselves away to the beach. Toward evening a thunder cloud in the southeast relieved the stress somewhat, but it was still decidedly hot as late as 8 P. M., when the official reading of the thermometer was 80 degrees.

But all told Wilmington people should not complain for there is consolation in knowing that while it was hot here, it was hotter elsewhere. For the 24 hours ended yesterday morning, according to the official weather map, Wilmington was the only place in the district below 90 degrees as the maximum. The reading here was 88, Charlotte 90, Cheraw 94, Florence 96, Goldsboro 97, Greensboro 95, Lumberton 94, Newbern 93, Raleigh 92, and Weldon 95.

INJURED WHEN HE FELL.

Remains of Mack Bordeaux Were Recovered Yesterday Morning.

The body of Mack Bordeaux, the young man who lost his life by drowning in the Cape Fear river Tuesday afternoon, was recovered yesterday morning by Captain Kirkland, of the government dredge Hercules, within 25 yards of the place where he fell into the water. His face was severely mutilated, having a severe cut on the lower lip and a bruise near the left eye, which are believed to have been inflicted by coming in contact with the dredge when he fell, rendering him unconscious. The remains were viewed by Dr. Bell, the coroner, but an inquest was deemed unnecessary.

The remains were conveyed to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bordeaux, on corner of Third and Dawson. The funeral will be held from the home this morning at 9 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church.

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.

Warrant Against Mr. W. J. Davis in the Poole Case.

On a warrant alleging that he bought stolen goods knowing that the same were obtained by that means, Mr. W. J. Davis, who conducts a second-hand goods business on Second street, was yesterday given trial before Justice Bornemann. The case originated Tuesday when the clothes of Mr. John Poole, which were stolen from his rooms with a number of other articles were found in Davis' place. He admitted to the authorities that he only paid $2 for the lot.

The trial which was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock required over an hour to hear the evidence, at the conclusion of which Justice Bornemann reserved his decision until next Saturday.

Class of Woodmen.

Mr. R. J. Hester, of Clarkton, district organizer for the Woodmen of the World, has been assigned this territory to work up a class of 100 and to more thoroughly organize the local camp. Mr. Hester will be in Wilmington for several weeks. Mr. E. B. Lewis, of Kinston, sovereign manager for North Carolina, has been spending a few days in the city assisting in the work and left yesterday for his home after placing the field in charge of Mr. Hester.

Remains Brought From New York.

Nathan Williams, colored, youngest son of the late Fred Williams, a well known colored stevedore here, died in New York very suddenly last Friday, aged 33 years. He had lived in New York 17 years. The remains were brought to Wilmington last night and the funeral will take place from St. Stephen's church, Fifth and Red Cross streets, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

DOINGS AT RALEIGH

Armenian Sentenced to Two Years in Penitentiary For Shooting His Child.

THE FIREMEN'S RELIEF FUND

Checks Soon to be Mailed Out—County School Superintendents to Meet at Morehead City—Rewards for Murderers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 15.—Nashan Manasian, a young Armenian, was given two years in the penitentiary today for a murderous assault on his 15-year-old sister, Mary. They lived six miles from Raleigh. Mary had gone for a walk the evening before with friends against the will of her brother. He upbraided her for it and she ran. He fired at her, the bullet taking effect in the girl's hip. She was in a hospital three weeks.

Fifty-one towns in North Carolina will within the next few days receive from the State Commissioner of Insurance, Hon. James R. Young, checks for their proportionate part of the tax imposed by the last Legislature on insurance companies doing business in the State for the creation of the "Fireman's Relief Fund." These funds in the several towns are to be distributed through local trustees selected by the firemen.

The State Association of County Superintendents of Instruction is to meet in annual session at Morehead August 26th, 27th and 28th, the purpose being a conference between the State Superintendent and his coworkers, the county superintendents.

The plant and good will of the Raleigh Evening Times was to have been sold to the highest bidder by Receiver Pace today to satisfy about $15,000 indebtedness but Judge Neal made an order calling off the sale on the ground that the creditors are now satisfied that the debts of the paper can be liquidated in time by the Times Company, the receivership to be dissolved very soon now. This means that Mr. John C. Drewery will retain the controling interest in the paper and that Mr. J. V. Simms will continue as business manager and part owner.

Rev. W. C. Blanchard, formerly editor and part owner of the Biblical Recorder, the North Carolina Baptist organ, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the church at Manning, S. C. and expects to take up this pastoral work about September 1st.

Governor Glenn offers $200 reward each for the murderers of John M. Morris killed so brutally in his home near Monroe Saturday night. There are believed to have been two of the burglars and the reward is $200 each. Morris was shot in his bed while the burglars were searching for money he was known to have. He was a farmer-merchant, the store and dwelling being in the same building. Morris' own gun was used by the burglars in committing the murder.

Decided to Fight It Out.

Adrian Allen and John H. Sampson, colored, appeared before Justice Bornemann yesterday for the purpose of settling a small matter which had been pending for some time, Allen claiming that Sampson was due him some $30 and he determined to settle the matter by process of law. This brought about a discussion, and Allen seeing no chance for him to obtain his money invited Sampson on the street, where he proposed a fight and they made things lively for a few seconds. The officers interferred and separated them. Allen satisfied, returned to Justice Bornemann's, and submitted to a simple assault.

Rowdyism at Vineyard.

Considerable commotion was created at a vineyard about three miles down the Cape Fear Tuesday night, when Bob Hill, Will Farrow and Estelle Hill engaged in an altercation which disturbed the neighborhood and as a result Constable Savage was called out at an early hour yesterday morning and succeeded in arresting the three in the trouble. Bob Hill alleged that Will Farrow struck him with a pair of brass knucks and also that Estelle Hill assaulted him with a hatchet. Both were sent to jail by Justice Furlong in default of bond for appearance at higher court. Bob Hill for a simple assault was taxed with the cost.

Swimming Races Saturday.

The Tidewater Power Company announces swimming races for Saturday afternoon and a number have already signified their intention of entering the contests. The three entries will be mile, half-mile and quarter-mile races and those who desire to be in the contest will place their application with Mr. H. T. Keane, at the Tidewater Power Company office. A junior team from the Y. M. C. A. will be in the quarter-mile race and this feature alone will no doubt attract a large crowd. The races are scheduled to begin promptly at 3 o'clock.

MARRIAGE LAST EVENING

Kydd-Butler Nuptials Social Event of The Month—Large Concourse of Friends Present—Leave For Vancouver, B. C.

Of much interest to a large number of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere was the marriage of Miss Edith Wilson Butler, the accomplished and attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Butler, of this city, to Mr. Harry F. Kydd, of Vancouver, British Columbia, which was solemnized in the presence of a number of admiring friends and relatives yesterday evening at six o'clock.

The marriage which is described as being one of the prettiest celebrated in this city during the month of July, took place at the hospitable home of the bride's parents, No. 216 South Third street. The home was made especially beautiful with its elaborate decorations of palms, ferns and cut flowers, carrying out with delightful precision the color scheme of green and white. The pretty arrangement of the decorations bore the earmarks of artistic femininity and the soft rays of the candles blended in harmony with the display of flowers.

The couple entered the parlor to the triumphant strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and the ceremony was performed very impressively by Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal parish, promptly at 6 o'clock.

The bride was becomingly attired in a handsome dark brown suit and the attendants consisted of five little girls, members of Miss Butler's Sunday School class, who were handsomely dressed and their appearance materially added to the pretty marriage scene. They were Misses Dorothy Nash, Catharine Elliott, Lucy Murchison, Kate Northrop and Frances Bailey. A most congenial and strikingly happy feature was the reception tendered by the bride's parents in honor of the guests. This was in progress immediately after the marriage and the many attendants remained until time for the couple to make their departure. A large number of handsome wedding presents evidenced the popularity of the young people at home and abroad.

The attractive bride, endowed with charms and manner, with her many accomplishments, is a most admirable young lady, with scores of friends. The popular groom is also well known in Wilmington, where he is favorably remembered as formerly cashier for the Armour Packing Company. Mr. and Mrs. Kydd left on the north-bound Atlantic Coast Line train last night at 7 o'clock for Washington, from there they will go to Niagara Falls and Canada, where they will spend some time, before going to their home in Vancouver, B. C., where he is engaged in the hardware business.

SOME VERY FINE PEACHES

Mr. B. F. Keith Brings Some Remarkably Fine Specimens From Farm.

Mr. B. F. Keith, of this city, returned yesterday from a visit to his country home at Keith, N. C., where Mrs. Keith and other members of the family are spending the Summer. Those who have been so fortunate as to visit the place of Mr. Keith have long sung its praises as being one of the garden spots of Eastern Carolina, but not until yesterday were attaches of the Star prepared to accept the statement without reservation. Mr. Keith brought along with him some specimens of very fine peaches raised on the place, large, ripe and juicy. Some of them would weigh fully twelve ounces and the fruit was as fine as was ever seen imported from Georgia or California. The Star doffs its hat to Mr. Keith as the "champeen" peach raiser of North Carolina.

Number of Cases Tried.

Fred Johnson, after being at large for almost a year, was arrested Tuesday by the police for shooting in the city limits and was fined $5 and costs. Ben Jennings, for assault and battery with a deadly weapon and Nathan Hankins, for larceny, were sent to jail in default of bond for appearance at the higher court. DeRossett McMillian was sent to the county roads for thirty days for vagrancy.

Annual Picnic Tomorrow.

St. Matthew's English Lutheran Sunday School will have its annual excursion to Carolina Beach tomorrow and the indications are that all will enjoy a most pleasant outing. Refreshments will be served and the children will be looked after closely. Mr. W. W. Koch is superintendent of the school and hopes to have every pupil take this outing.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 15.—The sixth and seventh innings were fatal to Wilmington this afternoon, the Raleigh Red Sox winning from the Sailors in a score of five to one. This remarkable feat on the part of the locals was accomplished by jumping on Mr. Bussey, the visiting artist on the slab for a bunch of hits, combining with an error of Rath at short stop to send the winning runs home.

The Sailors opened up in rattling good form when Sharp hit to centerfield and Hoey was safe on pitcher's slow handling of his bunt. With none down Brandon made a monkey of Ross, Smith flew out to left field and Doak forced Hoey at second with a drawl to short. Hoffman, first up for Raleigh, lined safely to centre but Farmer was out second to first, Warren on fly to second and Fox on fly to right.

In the second inning "Old Man" Kite, first up, drove to centre for two bases, was sacrificed by Rath and came home on a neat package delivered by Jayes over in right garden. Bussey and Sharp were out second to first. Raleigh was out in order through Dawson, Hill and Reid, neither of whom reached first.

Hoey opened the third with a drive to left and stole second after Ross had flew out; Smith flew out to first and Doak was out pitcher to first. Wrenn, Brandon and Hoffman were up and down in order for the Red Sox.

In the fourth Kite fanned, Rath was out short to first, Jayes was safe on a Texas Leaguer and stole second, but Bussey fanned. Farmer, Warren and Fox were out for Raleigh from the infield.

Sharp drew a pass opening the fifth for Wilmington but Hoey fanned, Ross flew to short and Smith fanned. Dawson, Hill and Reid were out in order, the first two swinging thrice ineffectually at Bussey's twisters.

It was the sixth when Raleigh cinched her franchise in the league. For Wilmington Rath hit to centre after Doak had gone out to left and Kite had fanned. Jayes flew to second after Rath had stolen second. Raleigh came to bat with Wrenn, who hit to left, was sacrificed and scored on Hoffman's two-base hit. Farmer hit to right, advancing Hoffman to third, scoring a minute later on "Wallie" Warren's drive to left. Fox was up but was out a minute later on a pretty double with Warren from third to second to first.

In Wilmington's half of the seventh three stalwart Sailors, Bussey, Sharp and Hoey fanned in quick succession. In Raleigh's half it looked like all Raleigh's players including those on the bench were going to cross the rubber, after two men were down. Dawson was out short to first and Hill flew to right. Reid sent a screamer down in centre for two bags and stole third; Wrenn was hit by a pitched ball; Brandon laid a nice one over to Kite in left field, scoring Reid; Fox up and hit a scorcher to Rath at short, who fumbled, filling the bases. Dawson won the everlasting ingratitude of Wilmington at this psychological moment by lining out a long one to centre, scoring the two Red Sox perched on the diamond elevations at second and third. Hill hit out pitcher to first.

Ross drew a pass in Wilmington's half of the eighth and Captain Smith was safe on Brandon's error, but there was weeping and wailing and nashing of teeth on the part of Mr. Ballard, Wilmington's only rooter in the grand stand, when Ross was out at second. Doak was out at left and Kite again did stunts in the air with the willow. Reid, Wrenn and Brandon were out in order for Raleigh.

The ninth told the story of out from the infield for Rath, Jayes and Bussey in their order, and Raleigh was so well satisfied with herself that, having taken everything else, she declined her half of the final spasm.

It was a great game, equally well played by both teams, with the exception of the sixth and seventh when the sailors apparently reefed canvas and were out-scudded by the Red Sox.

PRESENT POLITICAL CONDITION.

According to several of the leading newspapers of the country the question to be brought out in the coming fall election is that of Conservatism against Radicalism. Mr. Bryan's success will depend on whether he is classed by the voters as the representative of the one class or of the other. There has been a time when the Southern Democrats were very radical, but now they are becoming more conservative each day; they are beginning to think and to act for themselves. Any candidate now must please the people if he wishes to secure their votes instead of saying to them that he is the nominee of their party and is therefore entitled to their support. We think any one well acquainted with the feeling of the people of this section of the country will acknowledge the correctness of this statement. Mr. Bryan must show himself in accord with the Southern people if he wishes to secure the full support of the former democrats of this section. That he will get their support we have no doubt, but it will be after satisfying them that he is with them. This change in the feeling and the attitude of the Democracy of the South, especially of this State, has been brought about greatly by the position taken by the public men who on the stump advocated the adoption of the franchise amendments to the State constitution and as a reason for the people voting for it, promised that its adoption would emancipate them politically. The people endorsed the proposition at the polls and now they demand their emancipation. These are facts and the conditions that exist and they may as well be faced.

THE NORFOLK AND SOUTHERN.

As our readers know, the Norfolk & Southern Railroad Company a short while ago went into the hands of receivers. On this subject the Manufacturers' Record in its last issue says:

"It is stated from New York that the receivership was not the result of a default upon the bonds, because none occurred, but the dullness in the lumber business caused a serious falling off in the company's earnings, and it was necessary also to stop construction during the depression. The underwriting syndicate was closed up on May 1 and the securities therein were distributed to the syndicate subscribers."

The announcement of this receivership at the time it occurred was a surprise to most people in this part of the country. The company was supposed to be in good condition and people wondered why a receivership should have been necessary. Judging from the above extract there was no need for it. Speculation as to why this step was taken has been increased by the announcement that the New York Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad had passed into the hands of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. We know nothing of the inside workings, but it looks like a plan to put this North Carolina system into the hands of the great Pennsylvania company. We look for the Norfolk & Southern to soon become a part of that great Northern system, one of the largest in the whole country. If this be so it will work no harm to the eastern section of our State through which this line runs. It will be to the interest of the Pennsylvania company to keep up the development which the other systems had begun, and no matter by whom the road is owned, it will help the people of that section.

What sort of a Democrat is this Congressman Leake of the Ninth New Jersey district, elected to Congress by the Democrats, who writes to Mr. Taft such a letter as this:

"Hon. William H. Taft,

"Hot Springs, Va.

"My Dear Mr. Taft:—I cannot subscribe either to the candidate or the platform of the Denver convention. The conservative citizens of this country who are neither reactionary nor the representatives of predatory wealth or special interests, but who desire a rigid enforcement of the law with equal-handed justice, must look to you for protection against the wave of radicalism and class prejudice which will follow the Denver convention. You will have my vote on election day and if, during the campaign, my services will be of any value to your national committee, I will cheerfully tender them.

(Signed) Very respectfully yours,
"EUGENE W. LEAKE."

"The silly season canard that Mr. Bryan is opposed to Confederate veterans and would decline to vote for them has had the stuffing knocked out of it in the first round by the Nebraskan himself, who shows the falsity of the charge in no uncertain words."—News and Observer.

Let's keep history straight. Will the News and Observer tell its readers what reason Mr. Bryan gave for refusing, when a member of Congress, to vote in the Democratic caucus for either Mr. Crisp, of Georgia, or Mr. Mills, of Texas, for Speaker of the House of Representatives and threw away his vote on Mr. Springer, of Illinois, after the latter had withdrawn from the contest and had asked his friends to vote for one or the other of the two ex-Confederates from the South?

It looks like Mr. Bryan is beginning rather early to call the people's attention to the fact that when he becomes President he will not, because of certain restrictions on the powers of the head of the Executive Department, be able to do all he would desire or had promised for the benefit of the people. We are sorry he wrote that article for Collier's Weekly. It looks too much like making excuses before hand for what he expects to be his future conduct should he be elected. It was rather an unfortunate publication at this time.

The news from West Virginia sounds little like harmony in party. The Republicans have split and nominated two candidates for Governor. Mr. Roosevelt should arm himself with his big stick, which he has of late laid aside for the more peaceful implements of the scythe and the hay rake, and go down into the bailiwick of Senator Elkins and straighten things out. If he and his friend Taft don't look out the Republican candidate for President will not carry all the Southern States.

The people of Eastern North Carolina will be grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Charles G. Joyner, at the time of his death a leading merchant of Baltimore, but a native and former resident of our State. This news is conveyed in the following dispatch to the News and Observer:

"Baltimore, Md., July 14.—Charles G. Joyner, one of the most prominent natives of North Carolina, who lived in Baltimore, died at his home here today. He had for several months been suffering with a complication of diseases."

The News and Observer wants to know if it can be that Mr. Roosevelt is "attempting to have a war with Venezuela so as to use such jingoism as a leverage to put the Republican party in power again." Hardly. Were he to take that tack he would be more apt to stir up a war with Japan and put the responsibility for it on the Democratic member of Congress from the Sixth district of Alabama because of his repeated intemperate language on that subject.

Those fellows who are in the habit of "doing" boarding-house keepers better take notice of the following local item which we take from the Raleigh News and Observer:

"The grand jury of Wake county has indicted J. W. Parham, white, under chapter 816, Public Laws of 1907, charging him with obtaining lodging, food and accommodations from Mrs. Annie Potter, keeper of a boarding house, without paying and with intent to defraud. This is the first indictment in Wake county under the above named chapter."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Heaven protect us! Here is the temporary chairman of the Prohibition convention, now in session at Columbus, Ohio, Mr. H. D. Peake, declaring in his opening address that women drink more and men less than they did a decade ago. The latter is no doubt true, but the former is an eye-opener and we are not ready to believe it.—Greensboro Record.

—These old choir singers who have sung so often that old song "that Bryan will not carry his own State," may be obliged to change the wording or stop singing the song. There are straws upon the surface at present indicating that there is a "gentle breeze" that may develop into quite a heavy wind-storm before November out in Ohio, and where the word "Bryan" now appears it may be necessary to substitute "Taft."—Newbern Journal.

—The Goldsboro Record is somewhat in error in saying Governor Glenn had his wings cropped in the Denver convention by a motion to limit the length of seconding speeches just as he was getting ready to say his. That motion was made just at the close of our Governor's speech. Whether those in the convention heard it or not, it got in the papers all right and made several columns of mighty good reading.—Greenville Reflector.

—The platform is not so radical as we feared it would be. The tariff plank is given proper prominence, and we believe that it is the issue on which the Democracy can most effectively appeal to the people against a continuance of Republican control of the government. On other material topics the utterances are explicit enough to offer a broad contrast to the evasive treatment afforded them by the Republican convention.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

—The nomination of John Worth Kern, of Indiana, for Vice President instead of any one of the New Yorkers whose names had been prominently mentioned in this connection serves to emphasize Mr. Bryan's conviction that he has little to hope for from the East and that his fight must be won or lost in the Middle West. For many years Indiana was a doubtful State with Democratic proclivities and the hope is that by giving it representation on the ticket it may be won back to its former allegiance.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—Referring to the Landmark's statement that time was when the pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Greensboro might have lost his job by proclaiming himself "a Grover Cleveland Democrat," if the Bryan following was strong in his church, the Record says: "But the 'Bryan following' has never been strong in this church. In 1896 the pastors—there were two at that time, Rev. J. Henry Smith and his son, Rev. E. W. Smith, D. D.—jumped the fence and voted for Palmer and Buckner and took no pains to conceal the fact."—Statesville Landmark.

—What the best class of negroes, the leaders and the teachers, ought to demand on the occasion of our quadrennial political shake-up is to be let alone by both parties, and to be permitted to act in casting their ballots for what may appear to them to be for the general good; for whatever is for the welfare of their own growth and prosperity. The negro is not benefitted by any sort of political agitation. He is doing very well as it is, and the less prominent his activity becomes in public affairs for many years to come, the speedier will be his progress forward and the fewer will be the obstacles he meets on the way.—Chattanooga Times.

—"On my knee I begged her for a kiss." "And what did she say?" "Told me to get up and be practical."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—"Of course you play bridge only for fun?" "Of course," answered Mrs. Spangleton. "But it isn't any fun unless you are playing for money."—Washington Star.

"Hubby, won't you go shopping with me today?" "Nix, nixey and again nix." "There is going to be a demonstration of this new sheath skirt, and—" "Sure, I'll go."—Pittsburg Post.

—"Now, Johnny," said the Sunday school teacher, "can you tell me one of the most remarkable things Moses did?" "Yes, ma'am," replied the bright youth. "He broke all the commandments at the same time."—London Opinion.

—"Of course you could dress my daughter as she is accustomed to be dressed," said the old man, with covert sneer. "Of course I could," responded the younger one, "but I wouldn't. She'll agree to cut out the cartwheel hat or the deal stops right here."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"In your opinion," asked the member of the investigating committee, "what is the cause of the evident unrest among the Indians?" Comanche Pete, the noted scout, blew a cloud of smoke into the atmosphere. Then he took his pipe out of his mouth. "Fleas," he answered.—Chicago Tribune.

UNCLE ZEKE AND UNCLE ZADOC.

[Copyright, 1908.]

After five years' courtship George Toms, who was a farmer's hired man, had married Ellen Williams, daughter of another farmer. Both of them were of a religious nature and set in their ways, but they had no serious disagreements during their long courtship. It was only after they had been married a month and were preparing to set up for themselves that their talk one evening drifted into Biblical affairs, and the bride observed:

"George, I am glad you believe in all there is in the Bible. If you didn't I should be an unhappy woman. Martha Jones was telling me today that she once heard you say that you didn't believe Daniel was cast into the lions' den. You do believe it, don't you?"

"He might have been," was the doubtful answer.

"But he was, and you know he was. If you thought he wasn't I couldn't live with you another day."

"Well, we'll let it go and talk of something else."

Nothing further was said for a day or two, but it rankled with the wife. She believed in the lions' den, and she wanted the husband to come out flat footed and say that he did. She therefore returned to the subject, and when he tried to dodge her she became annoyed and aggressive and demanded to know just where he stood.

"You know my Uncle Zeke, who moved away to Kansas a year ago?" he finally replied. "You know Uncle Zeke was always reading the Bible. He was always getting up camp meetings and revivals, and sometimes he exhorted. Couldn't be no better man than my Uncle Zeke."

"Well, what of him?"

"He didn't believe Daniel was cast to the lions."

"And so you don't?"

"I can't say as I do, but there ain't any need of bringing up the matter and disputing."

"But there is," insisted the wife. "You know my Uncle Zadoc, who moved away to Indiana three years ago? Well, a better man don't live. He's read the Bible through nineteen times since he was married, and he's considered higher authority than most preachers. He believed that Daniel was cast to the lions, and so do I. If you don't, then we can't live together."

The husband felt called upon to stick by his Uncle Zeke and the wife to stick to her Uncle Zadoc, and at the end of three days she went home to her father. During the next year a dozen vain efforts were made by their friends to bring them together again. No matter what the ministers in the nearest villages said, they stuck by their respective uncles. By this time most of the inhabitants of the country had heard of the affair and taken sides, and as the church to which they both belonged was being harmed charges were preferred against them, and they were suspended.

No other families were broken up, but there were argument and dispute wherever a few people were gathered together, and "what Uncle Zeke said" and "what Uncle Zadoc said" became the butt of many jokes.

After sixteen months of separation Mrs. Toms fell into the mill pond, and Mr. Toms happened to be on hand to rescue her. They might have made up then and there but for the fact that letters were received from Uncle Zeke and Uncle Zadoc to the effect that they were coming back to settle the dispute.

"And you'll find that my Uncle Zeke and I have been right all the time," said the husband to the wife.

"Never!" she replied. "My Uncle Zadoc won't be five minutes in convincing you that you've been all wrong."

"It's awful that you have stuck out the way you have and kept us apart."

"And but for your obstinacy we might have been happy."

The county waited impatiently for the arrival of the respective uncles. They arrived. The husband told his story to his Uncle Zeke, and the wife told hers to her Uncle Zadoc. When Uncle Zeke had heard all he replied:

"George, what I said about it was one day in the tater field. What I said was that if Daniel was really cast among the lions it happened that the critters wasn't hungry just then. I'd been reading that no lion on a full feed would tackle a man. You'd better hustle over and see Ellen and make this thing up."

The wife told her story to her Uncle Zadoc, and when he had heard all he replied:

"I remember the day I said it. It was in harvest time and we had a lot of men to dinner. Jim Hawkins flung out something, and I replied that I believed that Daniel was cast into the den."

"There! I knew you said it!" exclaimed the niece.

"Yes, but I was going to say more when John White got a bone in his throat and cut me off. I was going to say that mebbe Daniel got out of the cage by another door before the lions had decided to eat him. You've been a mighty foolish woman, and you'd better get on your bonnet and hustle over to see George and tell him so."

And 500 people were strung out along the highway to see husband and wife meet and make up and stay made up to the end of their days.

NEGRO DROWNED.

Was Bathing in Lumber River and Got Beyond His Depth.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., July 15.—Foster Thompson, colored, 25 years old, was drowned yesterday afternoon in Lumber river, six miles west of here, while in bathing with a brother. Thompson could not swim and had gotten beyond his depth and drowned before his brother could assist him. The body was recovered today in 18 feet of water. Coroner Rancke was notified but after viewing the remains decided an inquest unnecessary.

Mr. Blair at Third Base.

The Wilmington friends of Mr. John J. Blair, who is now a member of the faculty of the Summer School at the University of Virginia, will be interested in an account of a baseball game played last week between members of the faculty and the students. After a struggle of five innings, the score stood 15 to 2 in favor or the students. The star for the faculty team was Mr. Blair at third base. The account in a Richmond paper says that base running was rather fatigueing for him judging from the way he sought relief from a fan each time he advanced a base.

FATAL CAR ACCIDENT

One Killed and Thirty Injured—Crashed Into Traction Engine.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Johnstown, Pa., July 15.—One man was killed and 25 or 30 others were injured, some perhaps fatally, tonight when a trolley car on the Johnstown Passenger Railway Company, after striking a traction engine at a crossing a mile from here, started backwards and went over a steep embankment.

That more were not killed is considered little short of a miracle. The dead man is George Kennette, of this city, 30 years old. Immediately after the news of the accident reached this city ambulances and automobiles with a corps of surgeons were rushed to the scene and the injured, a number of whom will die, were taken to Memorial hospital, where it is said that neither names nor a report of their condition is yet available. Men, women and children are among the victims. The car had just passed through the borough of Ferndale, a suburb and was rounding a dangerous curve at the time of the accident. Apparently the motorman failed to see that traction engine which was drawing several wagon loads of bark at the time, for the car crashed into the obstruction squarely. The impact smashed the front end of the car in such a manner as to disarrange the machinery which controlled it, and the motorman, having put on the reverse lever, it began to go rapidly backwards. As the car gained momentum, helped by a steep down grade, the passengers became panic stricken.

The rates exacted for the transportation of fertilizer from Montgomery, Ala., to points upon the line of the Southern Railway in Mississippi west of West Point, were found unreasonable and the Inter-State Commerce Commission ordered the substitution therefor for the maximum rates. The decision was in the case of the Montgomery freight bureau against the Mobile & Ohio and other railroad companies.

Monday Night.

DROPPED THE THIRD

Raleigh goes to Wilmington tomorrow and the Red Sox will probably face Levi, the new pitcher for the Sailors, who joined on here today. The local fans are expecting Kelly and his outfit to take care of themselves in Wilmington's territory and the Sox are going to make a desperate effort to do so.

The Raleigh fans demonstrated their delight at the defeat of Wilmington this afternoon by making up a goodly purse for Pitcher Brandon, First Baseman Hoffman and others who contributed most to the overthrow of the Sailors, thereby preventing them from leaving Raleigh with "three straights," which would otherwise have been the case.

ITALIAN MURDERER HUNG

Foreigner Who Shot to Death Father Heinrich at Denver.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Conon City, Colo., July 15.—Guiseppe Alia was hanged here tonight for murder of Father Lee Henrichs, on Sunday, Feb. 23rd at a church in Denver, Colo., Father Henrichs formerly served a parish at Patterson, N. J., and is believed to have incurred the enmity of anarchists there, who conspired to kill him.

Perhaps a more thrilling scene was never beheld by any of the 16 persons present than the execution of this Italian murderer.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon Warden Cleghorn, of the State penitentiary, through his interpretor Antonio Sasso prison guard, read the death warrant to Alia. The prisoner exhibited no emotion and when the reading was finished said:

"All right. I am ready to die now."

At 6 o'clock supper was served to the prisoner. Before eating he divided it into five portions, saying that one was for his wife, one for himself and one for each of his three children. He then ate with apparent composure and relish.

At 7 o'clock Guard Sasso told him that within one hour the execution would take place. Alia said he felt no sorrow whatever, for having killed Father Lee. He was certain that Father Lee was the man he had been seeking for many months and said that he had recognized the priest by a scar on the side of the face. Alia said he did not believe there was a God, for if so he would not have been permitted to be in his present predicament. He said he found no fault with the law, but that the priest did wrong in breaking up his family. At 8:30 o'clock the warden assistants led Alia to the executive house where the black cap and noose were adjusted by the deputy warden. During this procedure Alia became frantic and shouting "Long Live Italy!" "Long Live the Protestants!" Alia was placed on the trap, Chaplain Balkee of the prison uttered a short prayer, the dripping water of the automatic mechanism released the great weight and at exactly 8:30 the body was jerked into the air.

Alia's neck was not broken owing to the slipping of the rope and he died of strangulation. After 19 minutes Alia's body was cut down and he was pronounced dead.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION

U. S. Government Filed Petition in Federal Court Litigation.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Norfolk, Va., July 15.—United States Government filed a petition in the Jamestown Federal court litigation here today, asking protection as a creditor of the exposition on account of its $1,000,000 loan and claiming priority of payment over everything else owed by the Exposition Company. The petition sets out that the balance due the government is $897,953.57.

Of the $1,000,000 loaned the Exposition, the government had gotten back but $102,046.43.

In the Federal court at Norfolk Judge Edmund Waddill yesterday extended the land options of the 22 States having buildings at the Jamestown Exposition from August 1st to November 1st. The land is to be bought or the buildings removed by that date. The right of the receivers to buy the State buildings was retained by the court.

—Fayetteville Observer: The big new cotton mill at Cumberland of the J. Frederick Houston Company, has practically been completed, and Mr. Houston Dunn, the engineer under whose direction the building has been erected, returned to Philadelphia Saturday night. This building is unique in that it is the only cotton spinning mill in this country to be constructed of re-enforced concrete. Work was first commenced on the building eleven months ago, and since then a large force of hands has been constantly at work. The old wooden building which is to give place to the new and has been in full operation all the time, will be torn down, immediately after the machinery, much of which is new, is removed to the new building. The new building is 341 feet in length by 76 feet in breadth, and has a floor space of 35,000 square feet. There are forty concrete columns and 18 concrete beams, re-inforced by steel rods of an inch and a half in diameter. In some of these columns there are five of these rods, and in others, where the heaviest strain is, there are nine. The power to run this factory consists of 225 electric horse power, and 125 steam power. The electric power is generated by a Smith-Morgan turbine wheel and is distributed by fifteen motors, one of five horse capacity, 3 of 10 horse, 3 of 30 horse and 8 of 20 horse.

STEVE ADAMS ACQUITTED

Member of Western Federation Not Guilty of Killing.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Grand Junction, Colo., July 15.—Steve Adams, member of the Western Federation of Miners, was this afternoon acquitted of the murder of Arthur Collins.

Adams' alleged confession of the crime was excluded as evidence by Judge Shackelford and eight witnesses testified to an alibi for the accused man. Collins, who was manager of the Smuggler Union Mine at Telluride, was shot on the night of November 19, 1902 while playing cards in his office.

After the crier of the court had read the verdict Adams was ordered discharged by Judge Shackelford. Adams immediately stepped to the jury box and shook hands with each one of the jurors and thanked them for finding him not guilty. He also thanked the members of the Western Federation of Miners for their support and encouragement during his long imprisonment and trial.

TEAL POND MURDER.

Further Light Shed on Horrible Tragedy Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Troy, N. Y., July 15.—What is considered the most important point yet developed in the Teal Pond murder mystery came into possession of the police late today when County Detective Kaye found the suit case which Hazel Drew carried the day before she was murdered. From articles found in the suit case, it is established, the police say, that Hazel Drew did not intend to go to Averill Park on the day she was murdered and the startling theory is advanced that she was murdered in Troy and taken either by carriage or automobile to Teal Pond where her body was cast into stagnant waters. The suit case was checked in the Union Square station at 1:49 P. M. July 7, but unfortunately the clerk who was in charge of the check room at that time is ill and cannot be questioned.

Besides a few feminine belongings there was nothing of importance in the suit case besides the bag. There was a newspaper clipping which read: "Edward Lavvie has departed for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will remain for the winter," but as this bears the date of October 6, 1907, not much importance is attached to it.

The Mule's Delusion.

The pack mule is quite as much an institution as the team mule and is absolutely indispensable in the mountains. Mule packing is a fine art, and with a well trained animal and a skillful packer you can safely transport anything from a piano to a bag of oats. When the packer has finished his job in an artistic manner, the animal may buck or back, kick or rear or roll, but he cannot rid himself of his burden, and he finally gives it up in despair. After two or three experiences he will submit to his destiny and fall into line with the rest of the train every morning to receive his load from the packer. A well trained pack mule is always proud of his load, and if by any means it gets loose he will step quietly out of line and wait until the packmaster comes along to tighten it.

The most serious objection to the mule, which you sometimes find in human beings also, is the delusion that he can sing. One who has never heard a mule solo cannot appreciate the extent of his mistake; but, like everything else about a mule, his song is strictly original. It belongs to no other animal. No one can describe and no one can imitate it.—New York Mail.

Mixed Pickles.

Bishop Knox once explained that "Mr. McKenna's sword was an overloaded pistol which, being hung up in a tight corner lest it should burst, pretended to be dead until it got up and trotted home on the friendly back of the bishop of St. Asaph." But it is in political debate, especially in the house of commons, that the mixed metaphor flourishes most luxuriantly. "The floodgates of irreligion and intemperance are stalking arm in arm throughout the land." "This bill effects such a change that the last leap in the dark was a mere flea bite." "That is the marrow of the educational act, and it will not be taken out by Dr. Clifford or anybody else. It is founded on a granite foundation and speaks in a voice not to be drowned in sectarian clamor." "The question of moisture in tobacco is a thorny subject and has long been a bone of contention."—Manchester Guardian.

Tulip Soup.

"What makes this vegetable soup taste so different?" asked the young husband of the pretty bride.

"Only the leeks you sent home," replied the bride. "You remember you said you were going to order leeks."

"I didn't order any leeks," growled the husband, but he finished his bowl of soup rather than disappoint her.

That afternoon he stopped at the grocery store.

"How did you come to send leeks up to my house this morning?" he demanded. "I didn't order them."

"Great Scott! Did you eat them?" exclaimed the grocer.

"Sure, we ate them."

"Oh, for land's sake. They were Mrs. Jackson's tulip bulbs. She left them on the counter and they got into your basket by mistake."—Detroit Free Press.

A Queer Practice.

A queer practice which is general throughout all the tribes of Australia is the ribbing of the skin. When the children are still young long cuts are made across the chest, down the upper arm and leg and even across the back and ribs. While the wound is quite fresh the cut is opened and a mixture of mud is grafted in, the skin being pulled as far as possible over it. The skin eventually grows completely round the mud filling and forms ridges varying in length and size from an ordinary lead pencil to the thickness of a man's little finger and extending from armpit to armpit. I am informed that while the healing process is going on the pain is exquisite, but the result seems to satisfy all parties concerned.—London Standard.

The Brave Butterfly.

Here is an unorthodox story of King Solomon: One day a butterfly sat on the king's temple and boasted to his wife. "If I chose I could lift my wing and shiver this building to the ground," he swaggered. Solomon, overhearing, sent for the boaster. "How dare you?" he thundered. The butterfly groveled, "I did it to impress my wife," he pleaded. The great monarch was instantly appeased and let him go. "What did Solomon say to you?" gasped a quivering wife five minutes later. "Oh, he begged me not to do it," said the butterfly airily. And Solomon, again overhearing, smiled.—Chicago News.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Wilmington Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Wilmington citizen says:

Mrs. J. E. Marshburn, 516 Castle street, Wilmington, N. C., says: I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was well pleased with the results. I suffered a great deal from backache and pains through my loins. Headaches also occurred frequently and my kidneys were quite irregular in action. I always felt tired and languid and little like doing my housework. Doan's Kidney Pills which I purchased at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store cured these troubles and greatly improved my health. I am more than willing to have my name used in endorsing such a reliable remedy."

The lives of the great men commemorated in naming the chapters of this organization, should inspire us all to noble deeds, as that of T. J. Jarvis inspired these children, let us hope that the other children's chapters will follow in their footsteps.

—Kinston Free Press: A member of one of the train crews of the Norfolk and Southern informed the reporter, this morning, of a recent ordinance passed by the aldermen of the city of Newbern—which, to say the least, "is a honey." The law provides that upon the event that any train, passenger, freight, or log—should stand across the streets of the city, whether obstructing entirely or partially, for a period longer than five minutes, the whole train crew, engineer, conductor, fireman, porter, baggage master (and newsbutcher we suppose) should be arrested and upon conviction be lodged in jail for five days.

—Kinston, N. C., July 14.—On entering the yards of the Kinston Lumber Company about dark last night the Kinston-Carolina log train ran over Berkley Smith, a white man, who lives in Trent township, completely decapitating him, mashing his head into a pulp, and cutting off the right arm and part of the shoulder. There were severe gashes and bruises on other parts of the body. The man must have been lying close in on the track, for at the time the accident occurred the colored flagman of the train was standing on the engine pilot and absolutely failed to notice any one lying there. It occurred in an obscure part of the yard where great piles of lumber rose on each side. Just how he got there no one knows, the first intimation that the train crew had of anything wrong, was the crushing of the body under the engine wheels. It is supposed that Mr. Smith had gone to the yard to have three sacks of corn shipped out to his home and that his mule becoming frightened by the train had run away, throwing him on the track.

—Elizabeth City, N. C., July 14.—As a result of charges of graft having been filed against Chief of the Fire Department, R. Henry Raper, at a called meeting of the board of aldermen this afternoon to hear the case, Raper resigned, the same to take effect in thirty days. The charges grew out of the purchase by the city in May, 1903 of 1,000 feet of hose from the hose company represented locally by Raper, who was also then chief of the fire department. Brad Sanders, representative of another hose company, agreed with Raper not to put in a bid for furnishing the hose, if Raper would divide his commission. Raper agreed to pay Sanders half the commission, which was $35. When the aldermen were ready to purchase the hose, Raper's company was the only one bidding and the hose was bought from them, upon the recommendation and at the price named by Raper. Soon thereafter Sanders called on Raper for his share of the commission, and Raper refused to pay, stating that he had not received any commission from his firm. Sanders got mad and thought he ought to have something for keeping out of competition. The matter has been rumored on the streets for several years, but no attention was paid to it by the board of aldermen or city officials until the Indepent; a new newspaper in the field here, got on to it and kept the matter before the public until the officials could no longer ignore the rumors and investigation was started.

A Californian's Luck.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve;" writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c. boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

The Colored Brother's Reason.

Booker T. Washington told the story of a negro pastor who was having some difficulty with his flock.

"The old fellow came to me and asked me to help him out," said Mr. Washington. "I went down to the little backwoods country church with him one Sunday. Incidentally I took occasion to inquire among the parishioners a little and found that they had not paid the old man his salary.

"Upon this basis of information I started in to admonish the members of the congregation. I told them that they should pay their pastor; that he had to live; that he had to have his salary.

"All in all, I was making a pretty good speech. I had most of the congregation convinced, I think.

"But there was one old fellow in the back of the church that was mumbling during my talk. He would snicker a little and duck his eyes below the old soft hat he held up to his face. 'We ain't goin' to pay 'im any more salary this year.'

"The old fellow became so obstreperous that I remonstrated with him.

"'Brother, why are you not going to pay your pastor any more salary this year?' I asked him.

"'Because we done paid him for them same sermons last y'ar,' was the decisive response."

The Gun Barrels Grew.

In the early days in the northwest, when the Hudson Bay company laid the foundations of great fortunes by trade with the savages and a gun paid for as many beaver skins as would reach to the muzzle of it, the skins packed flat and the gun held upright, it was alleged that the barrel of the weapon grew and grew with each successive year until the Indian, after he had bought it with the peltry, had to borrow a file and cut off a foot of useless metal.

Domestic Bliss.

Wife—I have about made up my mind, John, that when I married you I married a fool. Husband—That reminds me of a remark you made just before we were married. You remember that you said it would be hard to find two people more alike than you and I.

His Glassy Eye.

Doctor—I diagnose all sickness from the patient's eyes. Now, your right eye tells me that your kidneys are affected. Patient—Excuse me, doctor, but my right is a glass eye.—Moody's Magazine.

Simple.

Lawyer (at the theater on the first night)—I can't imagine how the piece can be drawn out into five acts. Author—Oh, that is very simple. In the first act, you see, the hero gets into a lawsuit.

A Puzzler.

An old white haired darky living on a plantation, not feeling well, had the doctor pay him a visit. The doctor told him as he was getting old he must eat plenty of chicken and stay out of damp night air. "But, sah," said the old darky, "how can you expect me to stay in de house at night and still get my chickens?"

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 15.—Opening steady at a decline of 4 points, the cotton market early declined 5 to 9 points further, July excepted which advanced three points on one or two small attempts to cover by belated shorts. The general temper of the market was firm and after the weak start referred to prices worked up on a moderate business to within a couple of points or so of the closing figures of the previous day. The volume of business at best was small. It was a waiting market. The bears waiting for the bulls to realize the significance of the great crop indications. The bulls were waiting for the bears to realize not only the possibility of a reverse to the crop following a July-August-September habit but the probability of an early improvement in the demand from spinners who are yet, like the speculative shorts holding off on the ground that prices must decline under the weight of the early receipts from a record crop. Southern spot markets were unchanged. The alleged pressure of old spot cotton of which there has been so much talk from the southwest is no longer mentioned as a factor. The market closed steady at a decline of 1 to 7 points, with the exception of November in which position there were no transactions while the official puotation was given as 9 points under yesterday's closing. Sales estimated at 150,000 bales. Late in the afternoon houses operating for leading short interests were active sellers of October contracts.

Receipts at the ports today were 3,835 bales against 4,126 last week and 1,513 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 33,287 last week and 10,361 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,617 bales against 862 last year and at Houston 1,825 bales against 678 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 11.10; middling gulf 11.35; no sales.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 15.—The dry goods market ruled quiet, Knit goods and hosiery buyers are more plentiful in the market but are operating slowly. An encouraging feature in the silk trade is the demand for goods for immediate shipment that had been ordered for shipment August 1. The preliminary forecast of the jute crop shows a shrinkage of acreage for the year of 28 per cent. which will affect burlaps and other jute products. Cotton goods in the grey are dull and weak. Cotton yarns are fairly steady but in light demand. Dress goods are dull.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, July 15.—There was no striking new developments to account for the further advance in prices of stocks today. The buying was based on the general improvement speculative situation. Commission houses reported some moderate and scattering increase in orders from miscellaneous sources, but the transactions remained largely in professional hands and partook of the manipulative character usual in that class of operations. Probably some part of the underlying strength of railroad stocks is due to the conviction that a process of readjustment of freight rates is being worked out by the railroads of the country which will result in an increase of the revenues derived from their traffic. News of the filing notices with the Inter-State Commerce Commission of new rates shows the movement to be widespread and the changes to represent increases as a result. In spite of protests of shippers in various organizations it is evident that the increases of freight rates are going on and the effect on securities prices is undeniably favorable. A break of four points in Rock Island collateral 5s was a disturbing element in the later market in which a considerable reaction occurred.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $3,696,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Totla sales today 637,900 shares.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONVENTION

The National Convention of This Party in Session.

NO CANDIDATES NAMED

Temporary Organization Perfected—Sub-Committee to Propose Platform Appointed—Some Planks to be Adopted

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Columbus, Ohio, July 16.—The Prohibitionists national convention which met here today worked under a temporary organization throughout its two sessions and adjourned until tomorrow without hearing a report from the committee appointed to select its permanent officers. In fact, little was accomplished today beyond naming the members of the various committees and receiving the reports of the committees on rules and on credentials. There were no contests before the latter body, and its report, as well as that of the committee on rules was largely perfunctory.

The committee on permanent organization will report tomorrow morning and Professor Charles Scanlon, of Pittsburg, one of the numerous candidates for the Presidency will be named as the permanent chairman.

The presidential nomination is still open and there has been no marked concentration in favor of any candidate. It was agreed early today that the nomination could be had by Seaborn Wright, of Georgia, if he would express a willingness to accept it.

The name of Joshua Levering, of Maryland, who was the nominee in 1896 has been prominently mentioned.

When the sub-committee made its report at 9:30 o'clock tonight the platform had been in greater part arranged, and it is expected it will be accepted as it has been drawn.

There will be a declaration in favor of extending suffrage to women; the election of Senators by direct vote of the people will be favored and a ringing declaration will be made against the existing revenue laws which permit the issuance of licenses to saloons.

The platform will also declare in favor of the enactment of a graduated income and inheritance tax. A demand will be made that a proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States, prohibiting the liquor traffic, be submitted to the people. This is intended to meet the question raised in Congress at the last session that Federal regulation of liquor traffic is unconstitutional when it extends beyond inter-State traffic. This plank, together with that denouncing the revenue laws that permit the issuance of licenses, is expected to cover the attitude of the party on the questions of license and direct prohibition.

The sentiment of the party, wherever heard expressed, is opposed to local option or anything but the complete wiping out of the liquor traffic.

The establishment of postal savings banks will be favored. A declaration will be made in favor of government regulation of corporations engaged in inter-State commerce. The creation of a non-partisan commission for the purpose of studying and recommending needful tariff schedules will also be urged. The platform will also contain an arraignment of official tolerance in cities of the country of the social evil, and the traffic in girls.

SEVEN MEN KILLED

By an Explosion in a Pennsylvania Coal Mine—Great Excitement.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pottsville, Pa., July 15.—Seven mine workers were killed and ten others injured by a terrific explosion of gas in the Williamstown colliery of the Summit Branch Mining Company in the lower part of the coal fields. The mine was wrecked and set on fire.

The explosion occurred in No. 1 shaft of the colliery and is believed to have been caused by one of the men lifting the gauze of his safety lamp just after an explosion of a shot which brought down a large body of coal. The explosion shook the entire colliery.

The work of rescue was immediately begun and when volunteers were called for almost every man at the workings offered his services which meant a hazardous trip into the burning mine. Near the foot of the shaft the injured were found, they having rushed toward the entrance only to fall over unconscious. All of the dead were found a short distance from the shaft, battered and burned into an almost unrecognizable mass.

Physicians from Williamstown and nearby villages treated the injured, while a number of women volunteered their services as nurses. Several of the injured were removed to their homes after receiving temporary treatment, but others were in too serious a condition to be moved until tonight, and cots were provided for them. The doctors say that three of the injured may die.

One of the injured was taken to the morgue and it was not until identification of the bodies was made that it was found that he was living. He was badly burned and battered, but will probably recover.

The fire in the mine probably will be extinguished before much damage is done.

The Williamstown colliery is operated by one of the companies controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

YESTERDAY AT FAIRVIEW

No Politicians Present—A Quiet Day For Mr. Bryan—Speech of Acceptance Not Yet Begun. The Vice President.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., July 15.—Politicians were absent today from "Fairview," the home of W. J. Bryan, and, in consequence, the Democratic nominee for the Presidency had a quiet time. Except for two or three neighbors, who called in the early morning to pay their respects, there were no visitors, and Mr. Bryan was enabled to dispose of some of his most important correspondence.

As yet he has not begun the preparation of his speech of acceptance, and the probabilities are that he will not do so until Mr. Taft's address is delivered. The question of whether he wil make an extended campaign tour is one which Mr. Bryan is now considering. He said today, however, that the subject had not been sufficiently developed for him to make any statement regarding it.

The belief is general here that he contemplates the delivery of a number of addresses in various parts of the country. His first trip away from home since his nomination will be made on July 24, when he will go to Chicago for a conference the next day with the sub-committee of the National committee that yesterday was authorized to select a National chairman and other officers. It is not his intention to make any public speeches on that occasion.

Mr. Bryan still entertains the view advanced by him in his previous campaign that the Vice President of the United States should be admitted to the councils of the official family. He believes that the occupant of the Vice Presidential chair should be accorded greater dignity and not only sit in cabinet meetings and participate in their deliberations, but also should be kept informed on all affairs in order that he might be the better prepared to perform the duties of President should he suddenly be called on to assume that office.

"LODGE OF SORROW."

Elks Convention Hold Impressive Service to Dead Members.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Dalas, Texas, July 15.—Today's session of the Elks Grand Lodge meeting here in annual session was devoted to the "Lodge of Sorrow."

The impressive service of the order in commemoration of the deceased members, and various prominent Elks payed feeling tribute to those who have died. Henry A. Melvin, chief justice of the Supreme Court, of California, was among the speakers. Following the lodge of sorrow, Percy Clay, of Denver, read a report on the question of the destruction of the Elk which was brought up in Philadelphia Grand Lodge meeting. No final action was taken.

On the official programme the day was designated as "Get Acquainted" day and the visiting and local Elks followed to the letter the dictum of the order. This evening the 30 bands in attendance, massed, and paraded the down town streets. The bands were under one director and comprised 550 musicians. After the massive parade concerts in all pjublic parks and children's playgrounds throughout the evening.

Exactly 21,000 visiting Elks have registered and those with the 1,015 members of the grand lodge will be in line with the members of the local lodge.

PROGRESS OF THE FLEET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Honolulu, July 15.—A wireless message Thursday from the flagship Connecticut received here at 2:30 this morning says that at 8 o'clock last night the Atlantic fleet was in latitude 24 degrees, 10 minutes north, longitude 152 degrees, 32 minutes west, a distance from here of 340 miles. The weather was fine.

The Nebraska was reported by wireless at 6:30 o'clock this morning.

The second division composed of the Georgia, Nebraska, New Jersey and Rhode Island will come to the eastward of the harbor entrance. The Illinois, Kearsarge and Kentucky of the fourth division will anchor on the west side of the entrance, while the first division will anchor on the west side of the entrance, while the first division consisting of the Connecticut, Kansas, Minnesota and Vermont, with the Wisconsin of the fourth division, will enter the harbor.

MAINE DEMOCRATS

Hold Harmonious Convention and Instruct For Bryan.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Bango, Me., July 15.—Maine Democrats in convention today unanimously nominated Obadiah Gardner, of Rockland, for Governor, and Everett M. Mower, of Atlanta, for State Auditor. Electors of President and Vice President were nominated.

The platform declares for re-submission of the prohibitory law; repeal of the Sturgis law; abolition of the State liquor agency system, a 58-hour law for women and children in factories, and prohibition of child labor in factories, and it endorses the National ticket and platform.

The convention by unanimous vote adopted an expression of its sentiments toward W. J. Bryan and instructed for him.

NO GOLD MEDALS FOR AMERICA

Yesterday's Contests in The Olympic Games in London.

ALL THE FIRST PRIZES

Go to Contestants From Europe—Americans Withdraw From Some of the Contests—Saving Themselves For Others.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

London, July 15.—The gold medals went to Great Britain, France and Sweden, as the winners of the finals of today's events at the Olympic games. Great Britain was a double winner and France and Sweden each secured one first. The United States had to be satisfied with one silver medal symbolic to second place in the three mile team race, but the American representation in the various events was small.

The attendance at the Stadium today was the largest since the opening.

There were four finals assigned to the day, and of these England won the 660 yard cycling race and the three-mile team race, thus bringing the number of gold medals accredited to Great Britain to date up to four, as compared with two standing to the credit of the United States. The only final in which the latter country participated was the three mile team race and the American team finished an easy second.

France captured her gold medal for a victory in the 2,000 metres tandem cycle race and Sweden for Lemming's record breaking javelin throw of 178 feet, 7 1-2 inches, which topped the best previous throw by more than three feet.

Greece, France and Great Britain each took a silver medal for seconds in the javelin throwing, 660 yards cycle race and the 2,000 metres event, respectively, while Norway, Germany and Sweden took the bronze medals in the same events.

In the javelin throwing contest there were 70 entries, but, following the example of half a dozen Americans who had put down their names for this event, the majority withdrew.

The 100 kilometres cycle race brought out a big field. Cameron, the American representative, was entered, but he decided not to start, reserving himself for the shorter races. This contest resolved itself into a procession which lasted all morning. Hansen, of Sweden, was first in this heat and Lutz, of France, second, six others qualifying for the finals which will be run off on Saturday.

The closest finish of the day was in the first heat of the semi-finals of the 400 metres swimming event. O. Scheff, of Austria, winning by the smallest fraction from H. Taylor, of England. The second heat of the semi-finals also was a splendid contest, Beaurepaire, of Australia, having all he could do to keep ahead of Foster, of England. These four, Scheff, Taylor, Beaurepaire and Foster, qualified for the final which will be one of the big events of tomorrow. From Scheff's time in today's heat, five minutes 40 3-5 seconds, which was 3 2-5 seconds faster than that made in the second heat, it looks as though Austria may capture a gold medal.

Another event in the tank which attracted much attention was the fancy diving, the third and fourth heats of which were decided. Behrends, of Germany, won the third heat with 82.5 points, Errnigton, of England, and Metzell, of Finland, tied for second with 70.83 points. Potts, of England, captured the fourth heat, his score being 82.5, while Nicolai, of Germany, was second with 65.1.

The five mile run, which is down for Saturday should prove a great race. The eliminating trials have left the following to fight it out for the championship: Svanberg and Landquist, of Sweden; Hefferno, of South Africa; Verght, Murphy, Robertson and Owen, of England; Bellars, and Carr of the United States, and Meadows, Fitzgerald and Galbraith, of Canada.

As had been expected, England won the three mile team race with comparative ease. The time was 14 minutes, 39 3-4 seconds. France was third.

A picturesque feature was added to the scene in the arena today by the pretty dynastic display given by the Danish women, the individual team gymnastic competitions between Finland, France and Sweden and the water Polo match between Holland and Belgium. This last event raised the continental spectators to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

THE MYSTIC SHRINERS

Their Meeting in St. Paul—Next Meeting in St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., July 15.—The Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine today elected officers and decided to hold the conclave of 1909 in Louisville. Four cities were contestant for the fathering of next year—Seattle, Louisville, Atlantic City and Detroit. Selection was referred to a committee which reported in favor of Louisville. The report of the committee was adopted this afternoon. In accordance with precedent Frank C. Roundy, imperial potentate, was not a candidate for re-election and the officers below him were each advanced a step, leaving only the lowest office, Outer Imperial Guard, open to contest.

RECEPTION TO MR. KERN

Democratic Nominee For Vice Presidency Accorded Enthusiastic Oration by Homefolks—Fairbank's Speech.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Indianapolis, Ind. ,July 15—The nonpartisan reception given John W. Kern, the newly nominated Democratic candidate for Vice President of the United States held in the court house yard tonight on the candidate's arrival home from Denver was as hearty and generous and spontaneous, as the citizens of Indianapolis regardless of politics, could make it. Fully 5,000 persons gathered in Delaware street ,and in the court house yard, and gave Mr. Kern a hearty welcome and cheered him enthusiastically.

The candidate addressed the crowd for about twenty minutes, following his presentation by Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice President of the United States. Four years ago, Mr. Kern presented Mr. Fairbanks to a big nonpartisan gathering under similar circustances.

The crowd which received Mr. Kern was in a cheering mood. It cheered Mrs. Kern and William Kern and John W. Kern, Jr., when they came on the stand. Republicans applauded as loudly as the Democrats.

Mr. Kern arrived in the city a little after 6 o'clock tonight and was escorted to his home by a large procession. He arrived at the court house with Vice President Fairbanks a few minutes after 8 o'clock.

When the carriage in which rode Mr. Kern and Vice President Fairbanks arrived, the band started "When Johny Comes Marching Home."

Vice President Fairbanks was the chief speaker. He spoke about ten minutes, paying a fine tribute to his friend and neighbor John W. Kern. Each reference that the Vice President made to Mr. Kern was applauded by the big crowd. Mr. Fairbanks said in part:

"Mayor Bookwalter, and fellow citizens: The duty which you have assigned to me is a very unusual and a very agreeable one.

"We have gathered here without regard to party alignment to welcome and congratulate a fellow citizen who has been greatly honored. We appreciate full the fact that an honor which comes to one of our fellow citizens, is an honor to our entire citizenship. It is a gratifying fact that although our city has grown in population and industrial and commercial strength, we have lost not our neighborly spirit. We still have an interest in each others welfare and I hope that no matter how great our city may grow, we shall always continue to rejoice in each other's good fortune.

"Mr. Kern, I shall always remember with sincere appreciation the generous and hearty welcome extended to me four years ago. It is particular gratifying to me now to be able to perform a similar office for you.

"The honor which the Denver convention bestowed upon you is one of the two greatest which can be conferred upon an American citizen by his political associates. Honor came to you in a manner to enhance it. It came through the unanimous judgment of a great convention.

"While we owe allegiance to different political parties our differences have never disturbed our friendships or marred our personal relations. I admire you as a friend, neighbor and fellow citizen and rejoice with you in the great distinction which your party has conferred upon you by nominating you for Vice President of the United States. Here political partisan feeling often runs high. Our campaigns are usually waged with ardor on both sides, but we never fail to applaud our neighbor though he differs with us, if he wins distinguished honors. We never withhold from him an expression of our neighborly appreciation."

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, July 15.—As a pistol shot rang out on the city hall steps at 10 o'clock this morning, a little athlete in running tights carrying a silver tube containing a message from Mayor McClellan to Mayor Busse, of Chicago, started away up Broadway on the first relay of a thousand mile journey to Chicago. Herbert H. Rapp, was the runner and Mayor McClellan's message was as follows:

"To the City of Chicago:

"The City of New York sends greeting by the fleet runners of Young Men's Christian Association. This message is borne on foot without a halt from the Atlantic to Lake Michigan and the hundreds of boys who carry it gain no prize except the consciousness of having done their best."

Two thousand boys will take part in the race. Each runner will carry the message half a mile when a fresh runner will take it on to the next point of relief.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, July 15.—Adrian C. Anson, former captain of the Chicago National League Baseball team, was defendant today in proceedings before Judge K M.
